

Strong Families Strong Communities

Dan is a lifelong resident and proud father of six who cares deeply about our community. He has a strong connection to the land he farms and the neighbors he calls friends. Dan has devoted his time to serving local youth through church Sunday school, coaching, FFA and 4-H.

He's one of us...

Dan understands the challenges of raising a family, balancing a career, and running a farm or small business. His real-world experience has prepared him to lead - he'll be ready to fight for our community on day one.
